WEED FROM TODD.

Considerable Tobacco From That County Sold Here.

Loose Sales This Week Largely Attended and Farmers Well Pleased.

The loose soles on the floor by Woodbridge & Co., this week, embraced considerable Todd county tobacco, and while there was no fine leaf offered, prices on common grades were very satisfactory. There was a large attendance of farmers both Tuesday and Thursday and all were well pleased with their sales. The deliveries of the loose weed on the local market have been heavier this week than for several weeks past, the weather enabling the farmers to handle their crops.

There were some sales on the breaks also and this line of the tobacco business is improving. Case receipts for the week 425 lbs. Receipts for the year amount to 1200 lbs. There have been 116 hogheads sold during the tobacco year.

JOHN D. ELLIOTT'S WILL.

Testator Leaves Whole Estate to His Widow.

Owensboro, Ky., Jan. 20.—The will of John D. Elliott, the wealthy tobacconist, who died several weeks ago, was admitted to probate in the County Court. The instrument is typewritten and contains but three small paragraphs. The testator leaves the whole of his estate to his widow. At the time of his death, Mr. Elliott had insurance on his life to the amount of $86,000. The whole of this was made payable to Mrs. Elliott and the biggest portion of it has already been paid. Shortly before his death Mr. Elliott made application for two policies had been examined at the main office of the insurance company. These were favorably acted upon and policies issued. They were sent to Louisvile agent of the company for delivery. Mr. Elliott was fatally stricken. At that time friends of the family made an effort to secure the policies, but the insurance agents declined to surrender them. It is said that an effort will be made to collect the face value of the policies—$50,000—and that if payment is refused the courts will be resorted to.

ANNOUNCEMENTS!We are authorized to announce
JUDGE CHAS. H. BUSH,
Of Christian county, as a candidate for Circuit judge in the First Judicial District, subject to the action of the Democratic party. Election
November 1903.We are authorized to announce
MR. WELD C. BELL,
Of Christian County, as a candidate for Railroad
Commissioner in the First Judicial District, subject to the action of the Democratic party. Election
November 1903.We are authorized to announce
R. C. COOK, Esq.,
Of Christian county, as a candidate for Commissioner of Agriculture for Kentucky, subject to the action of the Democratic party. Election
November 1903.BUSH FOR JUDGE.

Christian county is to have a candidate for circuit judge who will enter the contest with an undivided support at home. The retirement of Mr. Jas. B. Allenworth from the race Tuesday, has caused Judge Chas. H. Bush to reconsider his previous decision not to run, based on the prospect of a divided county. His formal announcement appears by authority in today's paper. It has been nearly forty years since Christian county furnished the district a circuit judge, although it is by far the largest county in the district and court is held here two months of every year. Judge Bush is a native of Christian county and his position at the head of the Hopkinsville bar has been won solely on his merits as an able and successful lawyer. He is recognized all over the district as first-class judicial timber and his friends feel confident that his popularity at home and abroad will make him an easy winner. He is opposed by two worthy gentlemen, Judge Thos. P. Cook of Caloway, and Mr. Jas. H. Coleman, of the same county. With Christian practically solid for Bush and the vote divided in the other end of the district, the Hopkinsville candidate seems to hold a most encouraging position in the race.

The Court of Appeals has refused rehearings in the Powers and Howard cases. If the reports about Youtsey's confession are true, Powers and Howard will likely have cause to regret that they ever appealed their cases. The third time is generally the charm and after all there may be need for a gallows.

The obstructive methods of the defense have prevailed and the Court of Appeals has refused to advance the primary election injunction case. Afraid to risk a decision, they prefer to leave the matter tied up until after the meeting at Phillipi in May.

The Kentucky Press Association will hold its mid-winter meeting at Louisville Jan. 27th, the object being to discuss practical questions pertaining to the newspaper business. The meeting will be held at Seelbach's Hotel.

Glen's Graphic, at Madisonville, will make a great hit with its history of Morgan's Escape by Capt. Hockersmith, the only survivor. Editor Glen is already booking orders for papers containing the story.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure successfully. This is catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally and externally upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have the guarantee of their powers, that they offer one Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. See for list of testimonials. Address:

A LIE NAILED.

The Elkhorn Times has for some time past shown a persistent inclination to not only misrepresent facts in regard to the editor of the Kentuckian, but is disposed to go out of the way to display more or less venom. In its latest issue the Times reprints a column of vituperation from the Lexington Democrat, with its editorial approval and follows it up with charges of disloyalty to the party on the part of Mr. Meacham, because he has dared to oppose and expose crime among pets of the Beckham administration. It is the settled policy of this paper to keep out of controversies with other papers; but in order that the public may know the methods that are being resorted to by the papers controlled by the Frankfort machine, we reproduce a portion of the Democrat's collection of false statements:

"The attitude of Mr. Meacham in this fight on the committee in which he holds membership, is plain to see. He watched closely the time Gov. Beckham succeeded the late lamented William Goebel. He presumed at that time that his position in the councils of the party entitled him to absolute control of the only state institution located in his section of the country. The Western Asylum for the Insane. He started in with the idea that he was in possession of things there just as much so as did others of his class who are not located so far away from the seat of government who would control under the new regime as the political banders-on, it dawned on Meacham a short time after Gov. Beckham took his seat in the executive chair that he had miscalculated somewhere. He discovered that the new governor was going to term himself to be dictated to, and more than would William Goebel had not been carried away by an assassin's bullet. Finding this out, he was willing to make terms but the governor, as in the case of the late Mr. Goebel, wanted none of him in the administration of the government, and dismissed him. His conduct in the months that followed showed the extremes to which he was willing to go to even things up, an instance of it being the charge of "trap shooting" preferred against the governor's agent sent to investigate the alleged immoral conduct of an official of the Western asylum who was his, Meacham's friend."

It would be difficult to collect more falsehoods into the same amount of space. Not one of the charges contains an atom of truth.

Mr. Meacham has never at any time attempted to control the affairs of the Western asylum. On the other hand, he voluntarily resigned the Presidency of the Board of Commissioners ten years ago and has not visited the asylum five times since.

When Mr. Beckham became governor—and he owed his nomination to the 16 votes of Christian county—Mr. Meacham embarrassed him with no demands for office. He made but one recommendation for any place and that was of a man who held Gov. Goebel's personal promise and was endorsed by every member of the Democratic State Executive Committee, excepting one who was absent and not seen. The committee was the same now in office, with one or two exceptions. The circumstances under which Gov. Goebel's promise was given were explained to Gov. Beckham, with the statement that Mr. Meacham would make no other recommendation for office and he never has done so to this day. The applicant endorsed was Dr. D. E. Bell, of Christian county, for superintendent or first assistant physician. In the spring of 1900 Gov. Beckham sent for Mr. Meacham and voluntarily told him that while he could not appoint Dr. Bell superintendent he would appoint him first assistant. Dr. Bell was sent for and agreed to accept that place and the Governor assured him in Mr. Meacham's presence that the appointment would be made. Dr. J.

D. Clardy, who also endorsed Dr. Bell, was given the same assurance. The Governor at that time and later the same day pledged his word to Mr. Meacham that he "would do all he had promised in regard to Dr. Bell and might possibly do better." Gov. Beckham's Secretary, Mr. Ed. O. Leigh, bore the Governor's messages and has personal knowledge of these facts, and also of the fact that Mr. Meacham made no other recommendations for office for any one.

The Governor had promised to make the appointment within ten days, saying that he would give the candidate subsequently appointed first assistant the place of second assistant.

The appointment was not made and it soon became known that the Governor had deceived Mr. Meacham for the purpose of influencing his vote in the committee meeting held soon afterwards, and that he had no intention of keeping his word solemnly pledged in the presence of witnesses. This is the whole truth in regard to asylum patronage and any statement to the contrary is a lie pure and simple, no matter from what source it emanates.

Truth is a virtue that is greatly respected and a pledge of honor is regarded as a solemn compact between gentlemen. After his experience with Gov. Beckham, Mr. Meacham preferred to give his support to Judge Black in the campaign that followed.

When the nomination was made, Mr. Meacham supported the nominee and when Gov. Beckham visited his town introduced him to the audience, although he has never yet vouchsafed an explanation of the deception practiced, nor offered an apology for the breach of faith.

A year later certain men of bad character appointed to office in the Western Asylum and to other positions of honor and trust in the county, began to cause scandals by making the asylum a rendezvous for lawbreakers, a good many of whom were finally indicted and punished. As a good citizen, Mr. Meacham could do nothing less than condemn the retention in office of corrupt and immoral men. The guilty officials were not endorsed by him and the Democrat's article does not even hint of its untruth than the statements that the Governor "dismissed him" and then appointed "an official who was his friend." As a matter of fact, the Kentuckian, in common with the decent press of Kentucky, demanded that every guilty man be turned out and proper men be put in office. He made no recommendations for the office and preferred no charges against the Governor's cronies, shooting friends, who dare not even now deny that only a part of the guilty ones were indicted.

We have departed from our usual custom to offer this explanation, since the Democrat has evidently obtained the information from some campaign liar.

The legislative assembly of New Mexico convened Monday and elected J. Francis Chavez President of the Council and Nestor Monoya Speaker of the House. For the first time in the history of New Mexico every member of the Council speaks English fluently. There is a surplus of $380,000 in the treasury.

The $800 tax levied upon the district aspirants for the privilege of entering a $480 machine primary, has already thinned out the prospective candidates. Sam Molloy, Conn Linn, W. R. Howell and Jas. B. Allenworth have decided to stay out.

Gen. Joseph H. Lewis, Chairman of the Goebel Reward Commission, has called a meeting of the commission for Tuesday, January 27, in Frankfort.

MRS. V. E. ELLIOTT,
Hopkinsville, Ky.

The Editor of the Kentuckian made a visit, partly on business and partly for pleasure, to Mississippi last week. A part of the time was spent at the stirring little city of Grenada, as the guest of an editorial friend, Mr. J. W. Buchanan. The towns of Mississippi are wonderfully prosperous, the banks in Grenada and other cities showing such a healthy state of affairs that stock sells at from $1.25 to $1.75 and the dividends in some cases are as high as 40 per cent per annum. The country people are not so prosperous. Depending upon one crop only, they do not find cotton planting a ready road to wealth. What the South needs above all things is a healthy immigration of farmers who know how to raise other crops besides cotton. The soil of Mississippi can be made to produce well in hay, peas, fruits, vegetables, potatoes, etc. Stock raising of all kinds seems to be neglected, especially thoroughbred stock. When the Southern people learn the advantages of diversified crops, Kentucky, Mississippi and other states will show the same prosperity in farming operations that characterizes states possessing no superior natural advantages, in other parts of the country. The people of Mississippi are typical Southerners, noted for their hospitality to strangers, and we met many of them and received a cordial welcome in more than one home.

The death of Editor N. G. Gonzales, of the Columbia State, places Lieut. Gov. Jas. H. Tillman in a position where he will be fortunate to escape with his life. He waited too long to resent the write-up he got. It now remains to be seen how South Carolina will handle assassination.

Remarkable Cure of Croup.

A LITTLE BOY'S LIFE SAVED. I have a few words to say regarding Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I saved my little boy's life, and I tell the world about it. I bought a bottle of it from A. E. Powers of Godwin, S.D., and when got home with it the poor baby could hardly breathe. I gave the medicine as directed every ten minutes until it "threw up" and thought said he was going to choke to death. He had to pull the string out of his mouth in great strings. I am positive that if had not that bottle of cough medicine, my boy would not be on earth today. —JOEL DEMONT, Elwood, Iowa. For sale by C. K. Wyly.

SERIOUSLY INJURED

In a Runaway Accident Near Kennedy, This County.

Lewis Barker, a well-known user of our near Kennedy, Ky., was badly hurt Monday, in a runaway, says the Leaf-Chronicle. ## THE FIDDLE AND THE BOW

Ex-Gov. Bob Taylor to Lecture Here Feb. 2.

One of the most welcome announcements that could be made to the people of Hopkinsville is that Ex-Gov. Bob Taylor, of Tennessee, on the night of Monday, Feb. 2, will be heard at Howard's Opera House in his beautiful, his inimitable and perennial lecture, "The Fiddle and the Bow."

Few men are better known, more loved and admired than this gifted Tennessean, who, by his golden, magnetic nature, his eloquence, his culture and many impressiveness, has charmed thousands and made a conquest of the heart of his audience wherever he is known and has been heard. He has created a place for himself as a speaker which others may emulate, but none can achieve. The true spirit of the fiddle and bow, beauty of life, the cleanliness and nobility of thought, all are his. He paints a picture of the glad sunlight and makes it tender and more appealing with the dewdrops of pathos. His words are real and true, finding their way straight to every heart, and making better the life which they enter.

It is safe to predict that ex-Gov. Taylor's lecture will be one of the brightest features of the entire season here.

Rev. Carlisle P. B. Martin, L. L. D., Watauga, Texas, writes: "On a morning when first rising, I often find a troublesome collection of phlegm which produces a cough, and is very hard to dislodge; but a small quantity of Ballard's Home Remedy, taken at once dislodges it and removes it. I have found no medicine that is equal to it, and it is so pleasant to take. I can most cordially recommend it to all persons, needing a medicine for throat or lung troubles." 25¢, 50¢, $1.00 bottle at R. C. Hardwick's.

AIDEN BENEDICT'S

Production, "Wormwood" Will be Presented Here Jan. 30.

"Wormwood, or The Absinthe Drinkers of Paris" will be presented at Holland's Opera House on Friday, Jan. 30. Its incidents are based upon the terrible curse of absinthe, a pernicious evil which is spreading not only over the entire European continent, but throughout America as well. Working upon this theme, Marie Corelli wrote one of the greatest works of the nineteenth century, a book of great dramatic strength and of greater poetic divination. Utilizing the material, has written a drama of such intensity, purity of thought, beauty of sentiment and general excellence throughout, that many who have seen it say that like Corelli's book, the play will live forever. Few who have read the book will miss the opportunity of witnessing a play with wonderful characters, endued with life and moving and talking before them. Mr. Aiden Benedict, who has purchased the sole rights to this play, has provided a strong and capable company, and recently many magic electric effects and illuminations promises us one of the best entertainments we have witnessed in many years.

Mrs. Johanna Soderholm of Ferguson Falls, Minn., fell and dislocated her shoulder. She had a surgeon get it bandaged in place as possible, but it was quite sore and pained her very much. Her son mentioned that he had seen Chamberlain's Pain Balm advertised for sprains and soreness, and she thought it might help her. She took it, which he did. It quickly relieved her and enabled her to sleep which she had not done for several days. The son was so much pleased with the relief it gave her mother that he has since recommended it to many others. For sale by C. K. Wyly.

MR. C. H. BUSH

Announces His Candidacy for Circuit Judge.

He Pledges that if Elected He Will Discharge the Duties of Office Without Fear or Favor.

Hopkinsville, Ky., Jan. 22, 1903.

To the voters of the Third Judicial District:

The most of you will perhaps recall that something over a month ago I published a card declining to make the race for Circuit Judge in this Judicial District.

As I then stated, I was induced to take this step, because of sickness in my family, which threatened to prevent my making the canvass which existing complications in Christian county would necessitate.

Hon. J. B. Allenworth, a worthy citizen of this county and a reputable lawyer, had for some weeks been a candidate, engaged in the active prosecution of his canvass; and I was so situated at the time that my duty was to be at home. Hence I declined, under the circumstances.

Since then, however, circumstances have changed, Mr. Allenworth has withdrawn from the contest and Christian county has no candidate for the position; nor has the Democracy of this county had a representative on the bench for nearly forty years.

I have never been ambitious for political preferment and have never been a candidate for office; but for more than a quarter of a century I have been content to work and vote for other Democrats. But since my original decision was reached not to stand for office, I have received such assurances of cordial support from this and other counties, both by letter and in person, and have been urged to make the race by so many of my friends, and believing that I am qualified to perform the duties of the office, I have yielded to the solicitation of my friends and now announce myself a candidate for the office of Circuit Judge, subject to the action of the Democratic primary election to be held in this Judicial District on the 9th day of May, 1903.

I do not know whom my competitors will be, as there have been no formal announcements, but I am assured that I will have no opponents in this county, and it will be very pleasant not to have any in the district. But be that as it may, inasmuch as I have never asked your support for office before, I think I can reasonably ask your favorable consideration in this race.

I now appeal to the Democrats of this district for its solid support, hereby pledging them that if nominated I am confident I will be elected in November and will faithfully discharge the duties of the office without fear or favor and with the utmost impartiality. I expect to make an active canvass and see as many of you as I can before the primary and at all events, I trust you will attend the election at your respective voting places on the 9th of May next and vote for me.

Very Respectfully,

C. H. BUSH.

QUIT THE RACE.

Mr. Jas. B. Allenworth No Longer a Candidate for Judge.

To the Democrats of the Third Judicial District of Kentucky.

Fellow Democrats:

Something ago at the solicitations of numerous petitioners and personal appeals from my friends, I tacitly agreed to make the race for the nomination of judge of the Third Judicial district. Since that time the many assurances of assistance from the Democrats all over the district, and especially Christian county, have been very encouraging and gratifying to me.

However, I find that my professional duties and my obligations to those dependent upon me such that I feel called upon to withdraw from the contest.

In doing so I desire to most sincerely extend my thanks and lasting gratitude for the most generous support that has been offered me, especially from my home county and friends among whom I have

THE OLDEST MAN IN AMERICA

Tells How He Escaped the Terrors of Many Winters by Using Pe-ru-na.

Mr. Brock's Age is 114 Years.

MR. ISAAC BROCK, BORN IN BUNCOMBE CO., N. C., MARCH 1, 1788.

His age is 114 years, vouched for by authentic record. He says: "I attribute my extreme old age to the use of Pe-ru-na."

This centenarian is an ardent friend of Peruna, having used it many years.

In speaking of his good health and extreme old age, Mr. Brock says:

"After a man has lived in the world as long as I have, he ought to have found out a great many things by experience. I speak like a man of 114 years. One of the things I have found out to my entire satisfaction is the proper thing for ailments that are due directly to the effects of the climate. For 114 years I have withstood the changeable climate of the United States.

"I have always been a very healthy man, but of course subject to the little afflictions, which are due to sudden change in the climate and temperature. During my long life I have known a great many remedies for coughs, colds and diarrhoeas.

"As for Dr. Hartman's remedy Peruna, I have found it to be the best, if not the only, reliable remedy for these afflictions. It has been my standby for many years, and I attribute my good health and extreme old age to this remedy."

"It exactly meets all my requirements. It protects me from the evil effects of sudden changes; it keeps my appetite; it gives me strength; it keeps my blood in good circulation. I have come to rely upon it almost entirely for the many little things for which I need medicine."

"When epidemics of la grippe first began to make their appearance in this country I was a sufferer from this disease."

"I had several long sieges with the grippe. At first I did not know that Peruna was a remedy for this disease. When I heard that la grippe was epidemic catarrh, I tried Peruna for la grippe and found it to be the thing."

Yours truly,

Isaac Brock,

For a free book on catarrh, address The Peruna Medicine Co., Columbus, O.

If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case, and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.
